

Krebs Center for the Humanities: Workstream Status Report / September 2024

The Implementation Task Force (ITF) workstream for the Krebs Center for the Humanities has held two meetings to date. Here's a high-level summary of our progress:

First Meeting Highlights

- ◁ Reviewed the ITF Krebs work accomplished during 2024-2025
- ◁ Discussed the history, function, and operations of the Krebs Center for the Humanities

Second Meeting Highlights

The team explored the deliverables for the Krebs Center, including:

1. Student engagement opportunities through research projects and internships
2. Considering a community read program
3. Designing a Krebs Ambassador Program
4. Developing a “Krebs Road Map” for student engagement
5. Creating admissions and marketing materials
6. Brainstorming initial Krebs events
7. Exploring ways to engage the larger Lake Forest community

Next Steps

- ◁ Continue discussions on proposed initiatives
- ◁ Collaborate with relevant campus partners to refine ideas
- ◁ Further develop strategies for integrating the Krebs Center into campus life

The Krebs workstream is committed to thoughtful planning and shared dialogue as we move forward with these concepts. All ideas are in preliminary stages and require further consultation with various stakeholders across campus.
